

Chemung County Industrial Development Agency
Mission & Purpose

The Chemung County Industrial Development Agency is a public benefit corporation created in 1970, at the bequest of the County of Chemung Legislature, by an act of the New York State Legislature.

The Agency's primary purpose is to promote and assist private sector industrial development and to advance job opportunities and economic welfare of the people of Chemung County.

The Chemung County IDA does not employ any direct staff. The staff of Southern Tier Economic Growth, Inc., the designated economic development agency for Chemung County, (Elmira MSA) provides professional staff services to the Chemung County IDA under an annual contract with Chemung County.
